

About ARC Metals

A successful, developing company, yet still in its youth. ARC Multi-Metal Services was founded by two partners, bringing together 40 years experience within various sectors of the metals industry. ARC is a multi-disciplined company whose sales staff can provide a vast amount of experience, gained through working in many aspects of the supply of ferrous and non-ferrous products. As a newly founded company we are able offer the flexibility and expertise required to meet our customers' requirements.

We have the ability to source the right material promptly at the right price. We will be extremely happy to discuss your requirements to see if we can help your company in anyway. We will work to the highest standards to offer you excellent value for money.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES ARC Multi-Metal Services is a developing company. We are always on the look out for experienced staff. So, if you are looking for a challenge, would like excellent job prospects and good working conditions, please give us a call.
